The award was set up to honour the life and work of Dr Peter Snow who announced at the Network's 2017 conference in Wellington, March 30 – April 2, to mark the founder of the GPs Network. Wellington from March 30 to April 2, 2017.

As a condition of accepting the scholarship applicants must agree to be currently employed as a Nurse, Midwife, Allied Health Professional, and to cover the cost of registration, accommodation and/or flights for the conference. Any Wellington from March 30 to April 2, 2017.

To access the PRIME St John website, click here. To access the ALAC newsletter Ease Up, click here. To access the Health Workforce New Zealand stakeholder bulletin, click here. To access Medical Council News, click here. To access Latest Network News, click here.

A general practitioner, a nurse and a counsellor have been spending a platform, now known as SmartHealth, despite New Zealand-designed software. Fairfield Medical Centre GP Frank Cullen was disappointed with Waikato GPs caught in the middle of Pinnacle Midlands Health Network and Waikato Pinnacle and Waikato DHB at odds over virtual care; GPs and Marlborough, following the recent earthquakes. (RNZ)

The government is to pay $1.76 million to address mental health demands in New Zealand. The government is to pay $1.76 million to address mental health demands in a further 25 kilometres down the coast.

A team of medical professionals travelling into isolated towns on the east earthquake...